

Jonathan Mangagil

character animator

---

Experience

Aug. 06 - Present

Animator

Quincy, MA

Irrational Games - Bioshock

Animate creatures for the underwater world of Rapture
Key frame scripted events to support and advance the story
Reference and adjust motion capture data to fit the style of the game

Jun. 05 - May 06

Animator

San Rafael, CA

Stormfront Studios - Eragon

Key frame believable performances of biped, and quadruped creatures for cinematics and in-game animation
Study and animate physical motions of flying creatures
Meet production deadlines and weekly goals

Feb. 05 - Mar. 05

Animation Apprentice

Los Angeles, CA

Rhythm and Hues Studios - The Chronicles of Narnia

Completed 4-week course learning proprietary 3D software package and working on a production shot

- Shot consisted of two photo realistic characters; one biped and one quadruped to be completed through clean up
- Worked in production environment which included daily interaction with Animation Supervisors, Animation Mentors and interaction with Animation Director
- Attended animation lectures with R&H Animation Directors, Bill Kroyer and Richie Baneham

Jun. 04 - Sept. 04

3D Artist Internship

San Leandro, CA

Xzault Media Group

Animate high-poly and low-poly human characters
Create blend shapes and deformers to simulate wind on cloth
Setup fluids to interact with hard surface models

Training

Rhythm and Hues Animation Apprentice Program

Animation Supervisors, John Goodman and Lyndon Barrios

Pixar 1 Character Animation

principles and theories
Animation Mentors, Stephen Gregory and Billy Merritt

Pixar 2 Character Animation

acting through pantomime and dialog
Animation Mentors, Andrew Gordon and Mike Venturini

Software

Maya

Photoshop

Windows

3d Studio Max

After Effects

Mac

Flash

Premiere

Unix

Education

Academy of Art University

San Francisco, CA

May 2004, BFA in Computer Arts, 3D Character Animation

Training in Taekwondo

Member of the Fellowship Bowling League